AN UNFORGIVING LAND

The Trek Photography of
LEE BERGTHOLD
June 6-July 26, 2009

In May 2006, Lee Bergthold set off with three companions on a thirty-two day trek to trace the Hastings Cutoff, the infamous "shortcut" that put the Donner Party behind schedule and caused them to attempt their fateful crossing of the Sierra Nevada too late in the season. The beauty and the brutality of the land are captured elegantly by Bergthold, as are the effects on those few who attempt to survive in such an inhospitable place.
